Chapter 1 by lightningstrikesannah (I'm back!)

"C'mon, no one will know it's us," May said.

"No," I said, sticking with my opinion.

"Why not? Who will catch us?"

"It's just that defacing a murderers house is a bad idea, that's all," I said, glancing around, hoping no one would hear us.

"Don't tell me you believe in that supernatural crap, do you, Hannah?"

A strange gust of wind blew on us. I shuddered.

"See, he's coming to get you, isn't he?" May whispered.

"Stop it."

"Fine, I'll just go by myself. But you'll regret not going when I tell you all of the awesome stuff that happened."

She never got to tell what happened that night, because that was the night May died.

And Hannah was determined to find out what happened.
